

13 PhD and 3 PostDoc positions in Marie Curie ITN RegPol<sup>2</sup>

13 Early Stage Researcher (ESR, PhD) and 3 Experienced Researcher (ER, PostDoc) positions will be open in the Marie Curie ITN project “Socio-economic and Political Responses to Regional Polarisation in Central and Eastern Europe” (RegPol<sup>2</sup>).

We are now looking for highly motivated candidates for 13 ESR positions (36 months) with the starting date 01 September 2014 and 3 ER positions (10 months) with the starting date 01 July 2014. The first closing date for receipt of applications will be 18 February 2014.

The project RegPol<sup>2</sup> coordinated by the Leibniz Institute for Regional Geography focusses on new patterns of regional disparities between metropolitan core regions and the remaining parts of Central and Eastern European countries (CEE). 16 subprojects will be dealing with the socio-economic forms of regional polarisation, their wider impacts on society as well as the responses conveyed by social, economic and political actors.

RegPol<sup>2</sup> trains 16 young researchers for careers in academia, public administration, NGOs and the private sector.

All fellows will have the unique opportunity to work in interdisciplinary and multinational teams with excellent links to national and international research networks.

Full information about the RegPol<sup>2</sup> project, the individual positions available and the eligibility criteria of Marie Curie ITN actions can be found by visiting our <http://www.regpol2.eu/>.

In case of any questions regarding the project, eligibility or the jobs available please contact Ms. Franziska Görmar (f\_goermar@ifl-leipzig.de) at the Leibniz Institute for Regional Geography.
