

Curriculum vitae

Personal information

Name: Fodorean Florin-Gheorghe

Address: Grigore Alexandrescu street, no. 34, ap. 8, 400525, Cluj-Napoca

Email: fodorean_f@yahoo.com

Nationality: Romanian

Date of birth: 17 March 1977

Married, 1 child.

WORK EXPERIENCE

2004 – : Ph.D., assistant professor, Faculty of History and Philosophy, Department of Ancient History and Archaeology, Babeş-Bolyai University Cluj-Napoca.

2013, January - : Manager of the Institute of Classical Studies, Babeş-Bolyai University.

From 2007: expert archaeologist, cf. certificate no. 97 /01.09.2007, code AM-E-168. Included in the Register of Archaeologists of Romania (Ministry of Culture, Cults and National Repository).

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

November 1, 1999 - February 14, 2004. Ph. D. Candidate, full time employee at Babeş-Bolyai University. Subject: The Roads of Roman Dacia. Involved in research and teaching activities. Distinction Magna Cum Laude.

1999-2000. MA studies, Babeş-Bolyai University, Faculty of History and Philosophy, specialization 'Classical antiquity: Dacian and Roman archaeology. Dissertation: The roads of Dacia Porolissensis.

1995-1999. BA studies, Babeş-Bolyai University, Faculty of History and Philosophy.

Main research areas: Roman archaeology, Roman topography, Roman roads, history of cartography (ancient and modern maps), digital cartography, the history of Roman Dacia, aerial photography in archaeology, landscape archaeology.

Languages: English (C1), Italian (C1), French (B2), German (B1). Classical languages: Latin.

Organizational skills and competences: member of staff and coordinator of preventive archaeological researches, responsible of archaeological sectors on systematic archaeological sites, coordinator of the activity of the students on archaeological sites, member of the staff entitled to organize the national conferences of the Department of Ancient History and Archaeology, Faculty of History and Philosophy (2000-2007), director of a research grant.

Technical skills and competences: digital cartography.

Computer skills: Photoshop, CorelDraw, Global Mapper, Rom Plan.

FELLOWSHIPS:

October 2012: Grant, Förderung von Forschungsvorhaben (Stipendium) durch den Freundeskreis für Cartographica, Berlin, Staatsbibliothek. I studied several historical maps.

1 January - 31 December 2011: postdoctoral Fritz Thyssen fellowship, University of Erfurt. Project: Dacia, Pannonia and Moesia in Roman itineraries. A comparative study (<http://www.uni-erfurt.de/geschichte/antike-kultur/forschung/itinerare/>).

1 Nov. / 24 Dec. 2010 – DAAD (Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst) postdoctoral fellow. Project: Ancient concepts of space: itineraries of the Roman World. University of Erfurt.

1 March – 31 May 2000 - fellowship Socrates-Erasmus at the University of Messina. Project: The Roads of the Roman Empire.

CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION:

2000-2007. Member of the staff entitled to organize the national conferences of the Department of Ancient History and Archaeology, Faculty of History and Philosophy.

2012. Member and co-organizer of the 16th international symposium of the Department of Ancient History and Archaeology: Banquets of men, banquets of gods. Conviviality in ancient world, Cluj-Napoca, 23-24 November 2012.

AWARDS:

As member of the staff excavating the legionary fortress in Potaissa: 2003 - the prize "Emil Condurachi", conferred by the Ministry of Culture and Cults in Romania, for the project "The Roman legionary fortress from Turda".

ACADEMIC DUTIES. Courses

1. Cartographic sources and archaeological topography. MA level (specialization Archaeology);
2. Topographic surveys, digital cartography, GIS and archaeological sites. MA level (specialization Archaeology);
3. Introduction in the ancient history of Romania. Roman Dacia. BA level;
4. Modern methods and techniques in archaeology. MA level (specialization Archaeology);
5. Preventive archaeology and terrain diagnosis. MA level (specialization Archaeology).

2004-2007. Special course, BA level, Archaeology: The roads from the Roman Empire and from Dacia.

2004-2007. Course, second year of study, Archaeology (2004-2007): Archaeological topography.

2004-2006: Special course, Faculty of Sociology: Paleo-anthropology.

COORDINATED PROJECTS

Director of the research project financed by CNCSIS (The National Council for the Scientific Research in the Superior Teaching System), with the subject: The roads of the Roman Empire during Principate. Research methods. The integration of Dacia in the infrastructure system and in the economic, commercial and military structures of the Empire. 2005-2006.

INVOLVEMENT IN PROJECTS (member):

1. Archaeological researches in the baths of the legionary fortress from Potaissa. 2001-2002. Director/manager: prof. dr. Mihai Bărbulescu. Financed by CNCSIS.
2. Urban space and rural space in Roman Dacia: the case of Potaissa (2001-2002). Director: assist. prof. Ph. D. Sorin Nemeti. Financed by CNCSIS.
3. The classical antiquity and the science of religions. Analysis methods (2003-2004). Director: assist. prof., Ph. D. Sorin Nemeti. Financed by CNCSIS.
4. Atlas-dictionary of Roman Dacia. 2001-2003. Director: prof. dr. Mihai Bărbulescu. CNCSIS.
5. The South-western frontier of Roman Dacia: strategic roads, military fortresses and paleolandscape elements (2009-2011). Director: assist. prof. dr. Eduard Nemeth. Financed by CNCSIS.
6. The archaeological and monumental patrimony of Turda between protection and current urbanistic development.. Sponsored by AFCN (Administrația Fondului Cultural Național). April – August 2012. Director: dr. Mariana Pîslaru.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS:

Member of "The register of Archaeologists in Romania", member of AARG (Aerial Archaeological Research Group), member of the International Society for the History of the Map.

CAMPAIGNS OF ARCHAEOLOGICAL EXCAVATIONS:

1996-2012. Systematic archaeological excavations at the legionary fortress in Potaissa (Turda, Cluj County).

2004-2008. Preventive archaeological excavations within the project "Transylvania Highway". Preventive archaeological excavations, residential area "Lomb", Cluj-Napoca (2008). Preventive archaeological excavations, residential area "Tineretului", Cluj-Napoca (2007).

VISITING PROFESSOR, ERASMUS:

22nd – 29th April, 2013, University of Erfurt. Research project: The Roman cartography and the discovery of Roman Dacia.

26th April – 3rd of May, 2012. University of Erfurt, Germany. Conferences: 1. Potaissa - Apulum - Alburnus Maior: The strategic defense of the central and northern part of Roman Dacia. 2. Roman Roads in Dacia. Details at: <http://www.uni-erfurt.de/en/geschichte/antike-kultur/lehre/lva/dacia/>.

15th – 22nd of October, 2012. Erfurt, Germany. Conference: Preventive archaeology in Romania: past, present and future.