MISCELLANEOUS

Consultant to the BBC on Romanian affairs, 1984-2001.

In 1988, I was declared persona non grata by the Romanian authorities as a result of my adverse comments on the Ceaușescu regime in the British publishing and broadcasting media.

Co-organizer of British Book Appeal in aid of Central University Library in Bucharest which assembled 400,000 volumes for despatch between January and April 1990. In addition 1,500 books were donated and sent to the library of the 'A. I. Cuza' University of Iași, and to the Institute of History in Cluj-Napoca.

CSCE (Conference for Security and Cooperation in Europe) observer for Romanian parliamentary and presidential elections of May 1990 and September 1992, for local elections of February 1992.

OSCE (Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe) observer in Romania for the parliamentary and presidential elections of November 1996, of November 2000, and of November/December 2005.

Advisor to Foreign Relations Committee of Moldovan Parliament on presentation of English-language material to international agencies including EC, Council of Europe, and United Nations, 1991-94

CSCE/OSCE non-governmental observer for the Moldovan Parliamentary Elections, Moldova, 25-28 February 1994, and March 1998

I initiated and helped to bring to fruition, in cooperation with Dr Ann Lane of the historical section of the British Foreign and Commonwealth Office, the presentation of 43 volumes of Documents on British Foreign Policy, covering the years 1919-39, and 11 volumes of Documents on British Policy Overseas, from the years 1945-59 to the Nicolae Iorga Institute of History in Bucharest. The volumes were the gift of the British Government and were handed over at a ceremony at the Institute on 28 July 1995 by His Excellency Mr Andrew Bache, HM Ambassador to Romania.

HONOURS

Appointed Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE) on 1 January 1995 for services to British-Romanian relations.

Awarded 'Ordinul pentru merit' with the rank of commander for services to Romanian democracy on 1 December 2000 by President Emil Constantinescu of Romania.

Awarded honorary doctorate of 'Lucian Blaga' University of Sibiu, Romania, 1996.
