

Babeş-Bolyai University Cluj-Napoca
2012-2013

Doctoral School in International Relations and Security Studies

Doctoral supervisors

Ioan Horga

European Integration, European Neighborhood Policy, EU Regional Policy Euroregional Studies

Adrian Ivan

European Union Governance, Theories of European Integration, National Minorities in International Relations

Lucian Nastasă Kovacs

Modern and Contemporary History, Sociology of culture and education, Ethnic-cultural diversity

Simona Nicoară

History of collective mentalities, Political and Social Imaginary

Michael Shafir

International relations, Holocaust history

Liviu Petru Zăpârţan

Philosophy of the European Union

Affiliated academic staff

Mihai Alexandrescu

Contemporary history of Romania, International relations, European studies

Delia Bălaş

Media communication, Theories and effects of mass communication

Constantin Bărbulescu

Romanian modern history, imaginary of the human body, rural world modernization

Ioan-Marius Bucur

Religion in international relations, religious policies in communist regimes

Ionuţ Costea

Social history, pre-modern history, history of Transylvania

Mihaela Lutaş

European economic integration

Sergiu Mişcoiu

Theories of nations and nationalism, theory of international relations, French political system, discourse theory

Vasile Muscă

History of ancient philosophy, German idealism

Corneliu Nicolescu

British culture and civilization

Vasile Puşcaş

International relations and international negotiations, Central and Eastern Europe in international relations during the 20th-21st centuries, European integrations and negotiations

Natalia Cugleşan

International relations, multi-level governance, European policies

Dacian Duna

Contemporary international relations, security studies, European integration

Teodor Frunzeti

Political military analysis, international and national security, conflict management

Ovidiu Ghitta

Medieval and pre-modern history, church history

Marcela Sălăgean

Romanian history in the 20th century, contemporary political ideologies, the case in Transylvania and international relations in the 20th century

Sigmirean Cornel

Romanian modern and contemporary history

Virgil Țârău

Contemporary history

Eugen Gurzău

Environmental health, Environmental toxicology

Description

The PHD program of International Relations and Security Studies is offered by the Faculty of History and Philosophy from "Babes Bolyai" University, ranked as "type A" university in Romania and a leader educational institution in Eastern Europe, due to its programs, specializations offered, and quality of its curricula. Our program brings together a group of highly prepared professionals, well known specialists in international relations, security studies, history and philosophy. The PHD program of International Relations and Security Studies has adopted multiculturalism as main development direction. The program's goal is to provide students with a strong foundation in theory and practice of international relations, philosophy and history that are necessary in order to conduct groundbreaking research. The PHD program is designed to facilitate and strengthen the development of experienced graduates and professionals by expanding their knowledge and enabling them to make key leadership contributions to their competency fields.

Contact

<http://rise.cassoe.ro/>