SECTION 1 - Admission to the doctoral studies at the Babes-Bolyai University, of candidates - citizens of the European Union (EU), the European Economic Area (EEA) and the Swiss Confederation (CH)

I. General provisions

Art. 1

(1) Admission to doctoral university studies is based on a competition organized by Babes-Bolyai University, through the Institute of Doctoral Studies and through all 31 doctoral schools of IOSUD-BBU. The registration for the competition for admission to doctoral studies can be done regardless of the field in which the candidate obtained the bachelor's and master's degrees.

(2) Only graduates of the university studies with a master's degree or its equivalent have the right to participate in the competition for admission to doctoral university studies. The graduation diploma or bachelor's degree of long-term higher education graduates from the period prior to the application of the three Bologna cycles is equivalent to the master's degree in the specialty. Consequently, the holders of a long-term higher education diploma have the right to enroll in doctoral university studies without the obligation to complete the second cycle of master's university studies, according to Minister's Order 3199/2021.

(3) The doctoral university studies are organized in the form of frequency as well as by exception in the form of part-time education with financing from the state budget in the form of study grants or in a fee regime. According to the law, a person can benefit from funding from the budget for a single doctoral program.

(4) The procedure for admission to doctoral studies is the process of selecting candidates for each vacant position of doctoral student that the doctoral supervisors within the doctoral school decide to propose for occupancy at a given time (according to art. 32 para. (1) of Government's Decision 681/2011).

(5) Upon registering in an admission contest, the candidate for doctoral studies chooses a doctoral supervisor, among the doctoral supervisors of Babes-Bolyai University who offer doctoral student places for that admission contest. In order to register for the admission contest, foreign candidates (EU and non-EU) and candidates from the Romanians Everywhere category must obtain from the future doctoral supervisor the agreement in principle signed by them.

(6) The selection of the doctoral candidate for a vacant position is made by the doctoral supervisor who supervises the respective position (according to art. 32 paragraph (2) of GD 681/2011).

(7) In case of success, that doctoral supervisor will coordinate the doctoral studies of the respective candidate within the doctoral school in which the doctoral supervisor is a full professor.

(8) Following the proposal of the doctoral supervisor, a doctoral student can be enrolled only after obtaining the favorable approval of the doctoral school council (according to art. 32 paragraph (3) of GD 681/2011).

(9) The director of the council for doctoral university studies (CDUS) together with the secretariat of the Institute of Doctoral Studies specifies and displays the documents necessary to register for the doctoral admission contest, both at the headquarters of the Institute of Doctoral Studies and on the Institute's website and on doctoral schools' website.

(10) In consultation with the board of the doctoral school they belong to, the full-time doctoral supervisors establish, in detail and at least 2 months before the date of the admission competition, the evaluation criteria of the candidates and the selection of candidates for the places offered provided at the admission contest. These criteria will be communicated in writing to the Institute of Doctoral Studies and made public through means as varied and accessible possible, including via the Internet.

(11) Doctoral schools that establish specific criteria for admission to doctorate are obliged to display them on their own website and to send them to IDS at least 2 months before the period of registration for doctoral admission.

(12) The promotion of any form of direct or indirect discrimination between candidates for doctoral studies through the criteria of evaluation of candidates and those of selection of candidates is forbidden under the sanction of the law.

(13) Citizens of the Member States of the European Union, of the states belonging to the European Economic Area or of the Swiss Confederation have access to doctoral studies under the same conditions as those provided by the normative acts for Romanian citizens, including in terms of fees (admission contest fee, tuition fee, doctoral thesis fee).

(14) The amount of admission fees, file processing and university fees are established in the Regulation on admission fees (tariffs), tuition and completion of studies for the academic year 2022-2023 and are approved by the Decision of the University Senate.

(15) In case of state of emergency or alert or in justified situations, the provisions in force regarding the admission in online regime may be applied.

II. Registration conditions

Art. 2

(1) The registration procedure for citizens of the European Union (EU), the European Economic Area (EEA) and the Swiss Confederation (CH) in order to participate in the admission contest organized for doctoral studies is the following:

(2) The candidate consults the list "Distribution by faculties and doctoral supervisors of the places for the admission contest for doctorate admission for citizens of the EU, EEA, CH", displayed both at the Institute of Doctoral Studies and on the website of the Institute of Doctoral Studies and at doctoral schools.

(3) The candidate pays the fee for the PhD admission contest 2022, consisting of the processing fee and the registration fee, according to the Regulation on the admission, tuition and graduation fees for the academic year 2022-2023 of BBU:

- By the platform AcademicInfo or:
- at any post office, by money order, in the account RO35TREZ21620F330500XXXX, opened at the Cluj-Napoca Treasury;
- at the University cashier, str. I.C. Bratianu nr. 14, with working hours Monday-Friday (Saturday and Sunday: closed);
- by bank order, at any bank, in the account RO35TREZ21620F330500XXXX, of the Babes-Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca, opened at the Cluj-Napoca Treasury. BBU Fiscal Code: 4305849.

On the payment document will be specified the name of the candidate, as well as the mention "Processing fee and fee for registration for doctoral admission contest, Babes-Bolyai University, Faculty of ...". The receipt will be attached to the registration file that is submitted at registration.

(4) During the registration period approved and announced by display, the candidate submits to the Secretariat of the doctoral school to which the future doctoral supervisor belongs, the registration file with the following documents:

- The registration form (the completed registration form will be generated by entering the data by the candidate on the online registration platform that will be published on the IDS website during the admission period). In order to generate the registration form, it is necessary to enter on the online registration platform the personal identification data as per the identity card (identification card), birth certificate and / or marriage certificate, if applicable and according to the other documents
- Application for registration (which also contains the declaration of ethnicity) according to the model on the website of the Institute of Doctoral Studies - only for candidates who opt for the places reserved for the Roma ethnicity
- Curriculum Vitae
- List of published scientific papers (if applicable)
- Certificate of language proficiency in an international language or a document / report of an interview, accepted by the doctoral school, attesting to proficiency in a language of international circulation assuming a minimum level according to Annex 1. The language proficiency exam may be taken at the Alpha or Lingua language centers of Babes-Bolyai University. The Certificate of Language Proficiency issued by accredited language centers is also accepted, with a qualification corresponding to at least level B2 (according to Annex 1) of the Common European Framework of Reference - Council of Europe, obtained in the last 2 calendar years.

- The originals of the documents (for the "the true copy of the original") or notary-certified copies (of the following documents: baccalaureate diploma (and the transcript of records for the diploma model designed to be accompanied by a transcript of records); the diploma for the completion of the bachelor's studies (with the related annexes as the case may be: transcript of records and supplement to the diploma respectively); the diploma of post-graduate studies / master (with the related annexes as the case may be: transcript and supplement to the diploma); birth certificate; marriage certificate (only in case of change of the birth name by marriage); administrative document for changing the name (if applicable). Candidates who passed the dissertation exam in the sessions of the academic year 2021-2022 may be submitted at registration, instead of the master's degree, the certificate issued by the educational institution, which mentions the grade point average, the grade averages obtained in the years of study, the validity term and the fact that a diploma was not issued. The studies carried out abroad are proved with a certificate of their equivalence, issued by the National Center for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas (NCRED), from the relevant Ministry.
- Simple copy of the ID card
- Declaration of consent for the processing of personal data
- The document (receipt, bank order, mail order) proving the payment of the fee for the admission contest / receipt for the payment of the registration fee
- Cardboard envelope file (office file folder)

(5) Candidates who opt for the places reserved for the Roma ethnicity will bring to the registration (in the file) a written document issued by a legal organization of the Roma (signed and stamped), attesting their belonging to this ethnicity. The written document from a legally constituted Roma organization (regardless of the field of activity of the organization) must contain the mention that the candidate is part of the Roma ethnicity and not the fact that they are a member of the organization in question.

(6) The registration for the admission contest is made personally, based on the identity card/ passport and the other documents provided above.

(7) The registration for the admission contest can be done, on behalf of the candidate, by another person based on a notarial power of attorney.

(8) Persons with physical disabilities can submit the registration documents to the address: doctorat@ubbcluj.ro , accompanied by a certification attesting the impossibility of travel.

(9) The registration will take place in the locations and according to the schedule established at least 2 months before the registration period and will be made public on the IDS and doctoral schools' website, on the IDS and doctoral schools' notice board.

(10) The doctoral school will be responsible for organizing the registration activities, the admission tests and the preparation and transmission to the IDS of the documents and files necessary to complete the stage of confirming the occupancy of the doctorate place.

(11) The doctoral school will be responsible for keeping in good condition the papers and / or documents related to the candidates' files and the documents from the doctoral school councils.

(12) The secretary of the doctoral schools will submit, in order to centralize to the IDS, the files of all the candidates and the documents from the doctoral schools regarding the admission on the first day after the contestation period.

Art. 3

(1) Candidates (Romanian citizens and EU citizens) who have completed their studies abroad will present a certificate of their equivalence, issued by the National Center for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas (NCRED), within the Ministry of Education and Research. More details regarding the equivalence process and the necessary documents can be found on the NCRED website: www.cnred.edu.ro.

(2) According to the procedures established by the MER, the Institute of Doctoral Studies of BBU takes the necessary steps to transmit the necessary documentation for the equivalence / recognition of studies by NCRED. In order to send to the MER and NCRED the study recognition files of the Romanian candidates, EU, EEA and CE, the candidates have the obligation to submit the files in accordance with the NCRED requirements (<https://www.cnred.edu.ro/ro/studii-universitare>) within the date specified and displayed on the IDS website in the Admission section.

(3) Candidates who have studies abroad and do not submit with the registration file the Certificate of recognition / equivalence of studies issued by the NCRED within the MER cannot register for the doctorate examination.

III. Development of the admission contest

Art 4.

(1) Regardless of the field, the doctoral admission competition consists of at least two tests:

a) a specialized written test, based on a topic announced by the doctoral supervisor at least two months before the date of the admission contest;

b) an interview in which the scientific / artistic preoccupations of the candidate, their research / artistic creation skills and the proposed topic for the doctoral thesis are analyzed.

(2) Depending on the specificities of the field, other tests (even eliminatory ones) may be provided in the doctoral admission competition, upon the request of the titular doctoral supervisors and with the consent of the doctoral school council.

(3) If any of the candidates expresses to the future doctoral supervisor the intention to conduct at least one component of the doctoral studies in a foreign language, then that candidate will conduct at least one component of the competition in that language. This component will be eliminatory, and will be marked with admitted / rejected.

(4) The competition tests are held in front of an admission commission consisting of the doctoral supervisor who offered the position of doctoral student for admission and at least 2 other specialists from the Babes-Bolyai University having at least the position of associate professor or second degree scientific researcher. The chairman of the admission commission is the doctoral supervisor. The admission commissions are proposed by the doctoral school councils and are approved by the CDUS director.

(5) It is forbidden for a candidate for doctoral studies to be in a relationship such as spouses, in-laws and relatives up to and including the third degree, with members of the admission commission before whom he / she must take the tests within the doctorate admission contest.

(6) It is forbidden for a candidate to be in a relationship such as spouses, in-laws and relatives up to and including the third degree, with his future doctoral supervisor.

(7) Persons who are in a relationship of spouses, in-laws and relatives up to and including the third degree, cannot be appointed in the same doctoral admission commission.

(8) In case of a state of emergency or alert or in justified situations, the provisions in force regarding the admission in online regime may be applied.

IV. Admission results

Art. 5

(1) After evaluating the candidates' performance in the competition tests, the admission commission nominates, based on the established selection criteria, the candidate who is to occupy the position of doctoral student put out to competition. This candidate will be able to be registered on the respective place only after obtaining the favorable approval of the council of that doctoral school (according to art. 32 paragraph 3 of GD 681/2011) in which the doctoral supervisor is holder and if the respective doctoral school is provisionally authorized or accredited.

(2) The minimum average that a candidate must obtain in order to be declared admitted is 7.00. The average is calculated to two decimal places without rounding.

(3) The doctoral schools will display on their own website or on the notice board the results of the candidates (with the protection of personal data according to GDPR), so that the right to appeals can be respected.

(4) Any appeals, in case of written tests, are submitted to the Doctoral School to which belongs the doctoral supervisor to whom the candidate enrolled, within 24 hours from the display of the results by the Doctoral School, and their results are communicated in maximum 48 hours after the end of the term for submitting the appeals.

(5) No appeals may be made for oral, sports or artistic tests.

(6) Appeals based on ignorance of the admission methodology are not allowed (according to art. 27 paragraph (3) of MO 6102/2016).

(7) After resolving the appeals and displaying the results, the result of the admission contest is final and cannot be changed.

(8) The resolution of the appeals is exclusively within the competence of the Appeals Commission appointed by the Doctoral School Council where the candidate participated in the admission contest. The decision of the appeals commission is final.

(9) The Institute of Doctoral Studies will display the admission results on its own website (in the admission section).

(10) The remaining vacancies within the doctoral schools are redistributed for the first time, inside the doctoral school, to the doctoral supervisors requesting redistributions of the candidates (in compliance with the decision of the Administration Council no. 1633 /02.18.2021 and art. 14 paragraph (4) of the Regulation of organization and development of doctoral studies within the BBU No. 483 of 01.13.2020).

(11) The remaining vacancies at the level of doctoral schools will be redistributed by the management of the Institute of Doctoral Studies, equitably to all doctoral schools, taking into account the additional criteria for allocating grants / places provided in the decision of the Administration Council no. 1633 / 02.18.2021 and the CDUS decision no. 7587/May 5, 2017 and the grades obtained by the candidates for the admission contest.

(12) The remaining vacancies in July at the level of the doctoral schools that organize only admission session in July and do not organize admission in September, will be redistributed by CSUD, to be occupied in the admission session in September.

(13) The Institute of Doctoral Studies will send to the doctoral schools the number of vacancies destined for redistribution. The directors of doctoral schools have the obligation to send to the IDS, within the term specified by the Institute of Doctoral Studies, the nominal list of the candidates redistributed on the vacancies.

(14) The validation of the results of the admission to the doctoral university studies is done by the Doctoral School Council (CSD) and the Council for Doctoral University Studies (CDUS). The display of the final results on the IDS website will be done only after the validation of the results by the Doctoral School Councils and the CDUS.

Art.6

(1) During the period announced for the confirmations, the candidates admitted for places financed by study grants will confirm the occupancy according to the provisions in force, or physically in the location mentioned on the site or online on the admission platform, for registration, dissertation diploma or, as the case may be, of the equivalent bachelor's degree, in original, and the candidates who passed the dissertation exam during the academic year 2021-2022 will submit the graduation certificate, in original. This certificate will be replaced at the latest by the expiration date of its validity term with the corresponding diploma, in original. For the candidates who have studies abroad, the Certificate of recognition / equivalence of the studies by NCRED will be sent / submitted in original.

(2) Failure to present the bachelor's / dissertation diploma / certificate of recognition of the diploma or the certificate, in original, by the exclusive fault of the candidate declared admitted, within the term established by the admission calendar, leads to the loss of the place financed from the state budget (according to Article 14 para.(4) from MO 6102/2016).

(3) Candidates admitted for fee-paying places, listed as enrollable, will confirm the occupancy by presenting to the Institute of Doctoral Studies, during the period announced for the confirmations, the receipt proving the payment of the tuition fee for at least the first installment. The tuition fee is paid at the cashier of the faculty to which the doctoral supervisor belongs (according to <https://doctorat.ubbcluj.ro/ro/distributia-locurilor-oferite-pentru-concurs-de-admitere/>).

(4) Candidates who do not confirm the occupancy during the period announced for the confirmations lose the right to enroll, and the budgeted places left unoccupied will be occupied by sliding onto them the candidates who confirmed the occupancy with the fee, in decreasing order of the averages of grades obtained at the competition tests.

(5) The budgeted places, respectively the places with the unoccupied fee in the admission session 1 will be put up for competition for session 2 (if the case may be).

V. Registration of candidates declared admitted

Art 7.

(1) For enrollment in the first year of doctoral studies, candidates who have confirmed the occupancy:

a) They will fill in the study contract in 4 copies, they will submit it online on the platform, after which they will send it to the doctoral school secretary. The secretary of the doctoral school will be responsible for all study contracts to be signed by the doctoral student, the doctoral supervisor and the director of the doctoral school, and to be submitted centrally to the Institute of Doctoral Studies within 15 working days from the first day of the period of confirmation of the occupancy by the admitted candidates. The text of the contract will be sent by the IDS to all the secretaries of the doctoral schools, in digital format.

b) They will draw up, together with the supervisor, the plan of doctoral university studies in 4 copies signed in handwriting, using the offer of Courses of doctoral schools 2022-2023, which will be published on the page http://doctorat.ubbcluj.ro/documente/alte_fisiere/Discipline_scoli_doct.pdf. The curricula of all the 31 doctoral schools of BBU will be sent in June 2022 to the Institute of Doctoral Studies for verification and signing and will be uploaded in the AcademicInfo application by August 29, 2022.

The plan of doctoral university studies is approved by the council of the doctoral school in which the doctoral supervisor is the holder. The approved individual doctoral study plan is to be submitted to the secretariat of the doctoral school. The secretary of the doctoral school will submit to the IDS all the individual doctoral study plans together with the summary tables, within 15 days from the date established by the Senate of Babes-Bolyai University as the enrollment date of the doctoral students admitted after the admission contest. The form of the doctoral studies plan is published at the address http://doctorat.ubbcluj.ro/documente/formulare/Planul_studiilor.doc and is to be filled in by the doctoral-student by computer-editing it.

(2) Candidates declared admitted to budgeted places, with scholarship, will send / submit to the secretariat of the doctoral school when confirming the occupancy a document containing the IBAN of the bank account on the name of the candidate. These documents, accompanied by a summary table, will be submitted by the secretary of the doctoral school to the IDS or to the Registry (for the IDS) within 15 working days from the date of registration.

(3) The list of positions for the academic year 2022-2023 of the teaching and research staff within the doctoral school is elaborated by the Director of the doctoral school and is endorsed by the Doctoral School Council, the Faculty Council, the BBU Administration Council and is approved by the BBU Senate (according to the Senate Decision no. 9474 / 07.13.2020). The job descriptions will be sent to the IDS and to the Payroll Service (for verifications) by September 26, 2022.

(4) Candidates declared admitted to doctoral studies, who are interested in accommodation in the BBU dormitories, can apply for accommodation at the secretariat of the faculty to which they belong.

VI. Final provisions

Art.8

- (1) The doctoral schools ensure the transparency of the evaluation and selection procedures of the candidates for the doctoral admission and guarantee the access to this information, through the publication on the Internet and through other means of information (flyers, posters, etc.).
- (2) The directors of the doctoral schools are responsible for the good development of the admission contest, in the sense of observing the quality norms, the university ethics and the legislation in force.
- (3) The general information about the admission is published on the Internet at <http://doctorat.ubbcluj.ro/ro/date-importante/>.

Art 5.

(1) Regardless of the field, the doctoral admission competition consists of at least two tests:

a) a specialized written test, based on a topic announced by the doctoral supervisor at least two months before the date of the admission contest;

b) an interview in which the scientific / artistic preoccupations of the candidate, their research / artistic creation skills and the proposed topic for the doctoral thesis are analyzed.

(2) Depending on the specificities of the field, other tests (even eliminatory ones) may be provided in the doctoral admission competition, upon the request of the titular doctoral supervisors and with the consent of the doctoral school council.

(3) The competition tests are held in front of an admission commission consisting of the doctoral supervisor who offered the position of doctoral student for admission, and at least 2 other specialists from the Babes-Bolyai University who have at least the position of associate professor or second degree scientific researcher. The chairman of the admission commission is the doctoral supervisor. The admission commissions are proposed by the doctoral school councils and are approved by the CSUD director.

(4) It is forbidden for a candidate for doctoral studies to be in a relationship such as spouses, in-laws and relatives up to and including the third degree, with members of the admission commission before whom he / she must take the tests within the doctorate admission contest.

(5) It is forbidden for a candidate to be in a relationship such as spouses, in-laws and relatives up to and including the third degree, with his future doctoral supervisor.

(6) Persons who are in a relationship of spouses, in-laws and relatives up to and including the third degree, cannot be appointed in the same doctoral admission commission.

V. Admission Results

Art. 6

(1) After evaluating the candidates' performance in the competition tests, the admission commission nominates, based on the established selection criteria, the candidate who is to occupy the position of doctoral student put out to competition. This candidate will be able to be registered on the respective place only after obtaining the favorable approval of the council of that doctoral school (according to art. 32 paragraph 3 of GD 681/2011) in which the doctoral supervisor is holder and if the respective doctoral school is provisionally authorized or accredited.

(2) The minimum average that a candidate must obtain in order to be declared admitted is 7.00. The average is calculated to two decimal places without rounding.

(3) The doctoral schools will display on their own website or on the notice board the results of the candidates (with the protection of personal data according to GDPR), so that the right to appeals can be respected.

(4) Any appeals, in case of written tests, are submitted to the Doctoral School to which belongs the doctoral supervisor to whom the candidate enrolled, within 24 hours from the display of the results by the Doctoral School, and their results are communicated in maximum 48 hours after the end of the term for submitting the appeals.

(5) No appeals may be made for oral, sports or artistic tests.

(6) Appeals based on ignorance of the admission methodology are not allowed (according to art. 27 paragraph (3) of MO 6102/2016).

(7) After resolving the appeals and displaying the results, the result of the admission contest is final and cannot be changed.

(8) The resolution of the appeals is exclusively within the competence of the Appeals Commission appointed by the Doctoral School Council where the candidate participated in the admission contest. The decision of the appeals commission is final.

(9) The Institute of Doctoral Studies will display the admission results on its own website (in the admission section).

(10) The remaining vacancies within the doctoral schools are redistributed for the first time, inside the doctoral school, to the doctoral supervisors requesting redistributions of the candidates (in compliance with the decision of the Administration Council no. 1633 /02.18.2021 and art. 14 paragraph (4) of the Regulation of organization and development of doctoral studies within the BBU No. 483 of 01.13.2020).

(11) The remaining vacancies at the level of doctoral schools will be redistributed by the management of the Institute of Doctoral Studies, equitably to all doctoral schools, taking into account the additional criteria for allocating grants / places provided in the decision of the Administration Council no. 1633 / 02.18.2021 and the CSUD decision no. 7587/May 5, 2017 and the marks obtained by the candidates for the admission contest.

(12) The remaining vacancies in July at the level of the doctoral schools that organize only admission session in July and do not organize admission in September, will be redistributed by CSUD, to be occupied in the admission session in September.

(13) The Institute of Doctoral Studies will send to the doctoral schools the number of vacancies destined for redistribution. The directors of doctoral schools have the obligation to send to the IDS, within the term specified by the Institute of Doctoral Studies, the nominal list of the candidates redistributed on the vacancies.

(14) The validation of the results of the admission to the doctoral university studies is done by the Doctoral School Council (DSC) and the Council for Doctoral University Studies (CDUS).
